

Ladybird Adrift

Alison Downs

ISBN: 978-1-949398-03-8
Category: Literary Fiction
Publisher: RhetAskew Publishing
(a division of Rhetoric Askew, LLC)
Format: Paperback
Trim size: 5x8
Price: $13.95
Publication date: August 1, 2018
Available through: Ingram Distribution

PEN Award Nominee

When Claudia fell in love with Victor she knew their 30-year age difference would present some challenges...

Is their unlikely love powerful enough to withstand Alzheimer's?

Praise for LADYBIRD ADRIFT:

"This moving and tender love story...will move every reader's heart," Lurlene McDaniel, best-selling author of "Losing Gabriel: a love story."

From the Publisher:

Downs takes the reader on an unapologetic journey through love in the face of Alzheimer's. When you read this book, you will appreciate how precious each small moment can be. Prepare to be moved...

ALISON DOWNS is a writer and editor, with a hand in everything from community newspapers to textbooks. In her spare time, she likes to travel, shop, and attempt to clear out her endless Netflix queue.

She lives in Manchester, New Hampshire, with her partner and his son. Find out more about Alison at www.AlisonDowns.com. LADYBIRD ADRIFT is her first novel.

 Facebook.com/AlisonDownsWrites
 Twitter.com/AlisonDowns
 AlisonDowns.com